

The Highclere Red House

DELI OFFERINGS

- A large selection of fresh Fruit & Vegetables
- Freshly Ground Coffees (Peace & Hope roast from Peaberry)
- Homemade Breads & Focaccias using Wessex Mill flour
- British & Italian Cheeses
- Charcuterie & Salamis from Carnevale
- Home-Baked Marmalade-glazed Ham
- Pate & Rillettes from Cornish Charcuterie
- Smoked Trout products from Berkshire Trout
- Free Range Eggs from Cacklebean & Hollington Farm
- Organic Milk & Dairy produce from Berkley Farm Dairy
- Home-baked Sweet Treats, Cakes & Pastries
- Toasties, Paninis & Baps with your choice of fillings
- Local Honey from award-winning Hampshire Honey
- Oils, Balsamics & Homemade Chutneys
- Local award-winning spirits & a selection of wines

Notes for your diary...

- Deli & Coffee Shop open 8.30am – 5pm, Tuesday – Saturday
- We collect our Fruit & Veg every Wednesday night....Freshest of fresh supplies therefore available on Thursdays!
- Freshly baked bread available Wednesday – Saturday
- Fishmonger Andy North is with us every Wednesday 3.30-4.30pm
- Graham from Ethel's Pies is with us every Friday & Saturday

Did you know...? Shortened to "Deli" by the Americans in the mid-1900s, "Delicatessen" is a German loan word. Contrary to popular belief, it doesn't derive from the German word "essen," which means "to eat." Delicatessen is actually a loanword in German, as well! The Germans borrowed it from the French "délicatesse," which means "delicious things."